A PLAY IN 3 DAYS

Maintains an upbeat atmosphere at all times, balancing self-confidence, skill-building and creativity.

Rehearses and presents a 'sharing' which provides an opportunity for families to experience process and product in a theatrically safe environment, including on-stage and on-camera acting.

Invites NYC agents, managers and casting directors who attend all third day sharings.

Provides parents with the opportunity to discuss with faculty and invited industry professionals confidential recommendations for further study &/or professional representation.

Faculty is comprised of experienced teaching artists, who are NYC theater professionals.

Project director Wendy Taucher.
